From The Desk of The Presidents

As we step into a brand-new year, we do so with a strong sense of connection. The close of last month was a beautiful reminder of what Indus stands for – and what we can achieve together.

Our Christmas Coffee Morning saw one of the largest turnouts in the history of Indus. A particularly moving highlight was the choir's exquisite rendition of Silent Night in English, German, Hindi, and Japanese – a powerful and emotional moment that perfectly embodied this year's motto "Finding Common Ground". Member participation was outstanding, with strong attendance and involvement in many activities. The NGOs who joined us had a very rewarding morning. A heartfelt thank-you to everyone who supported the NGOs, contributed to the bake sale, and helped create such a welcoming setting with the beautiful decorations.

Looking ahead to January, we are delighted to share that the Picnic date is fixed for Thursday, 22 January 2026. It will be graciously hosted by Nafisa Khorakiwala in Alibaug, who has generously opened her home to us. More details to follow soon.

We wish you all a Happy New Year and look forward to meeting everyone again and continuing to find common ground together in the months ahead.

NISSCHAL ZAVERI - VOICES REMEMBERED: WOMEN, POETRY AND SONG.

How does poetry change when it is sung, and music deepen when it carries meaning? In this performance, Nisschal Zaveri approaches thumri, nazm, and ghazal as living dialogues between word, voice, and emotion. Conceived as an intimate cultural salon, the performance invites focused listening, allowing poetry and melody to reveal their layered nuances. Blending live performance with brief contextual insight, the programme explores poetic forms, themes, and interpretative choices with special attention given to works written or originally performed by women.

The performance will be presented by Nisschal Zaveri, a Mumbai-based ghazal vocalist trained in Indian classical music and Western music production. Known for his sensitive and informed interpretations, he performs widely in India and internationally. Nisschal Zaveri is the husband of Indus member Sasha Zaveri.

Please dress up in Indian festive attire and join us for what will surely be an incredible event.

ART DECO IS 100, AND MUMBAI SHINES CENTRE STAGE!

This year marks the centenary of Art Deco - and Mumbai stands at its dazzling heart. The city's cinemas, apartment buildings, and seafront skylines are now recognised as some of the most significant Art Deco ensembles in the world, blending international style with a distinctly Bombay character. In this session, Smiti Kanodia will share insights from Art Deco Alive!, the first and largest global celebration of 100 years of Art Deco design. This twin-city festival has just concluded across Miami and Mumbai with exhibitions, walks, and public programmes.

Smiti Kanodia is the Founder and Mumbai Curatorial Director of Art Deco Alive! and the mind behind the centenary exhibition Ocean Drive to Marine Drive: Mapping a Century of Deco | Miami–Mumbai (1925–2025). A Mumbai-based entrepreneur and former Time Out India Publisher, she connects design, culture, and community to position Deco as both a heritage and a vital part of the city's evolving identity.

Come and rediscover Mumbai through its Deco skyline—learn why this centenary moment matters, hear what the Miami–Mumbai partnership has unlocked, and explore how each of us can appreciate and support the future of these remarkable buildings.
